Constable And His Drawings

John Constable RA (/ ' k ʌ n s t ə b ə l, ' k ɒ n-/; 11 June 1776 – 31 March 1837) was an English landscape painter in the Romantic tradition. Born in Suffolk, he is known principally for revolutionising the genre of landscape painting with his pictures of Dedham Vale, the area surrounding his home – now known as "Constable Country" – which he invested with an intensity of affection.

Working from a number of open-air sketches made over several years, Constable then made a full-size preparatory oil sketch to establish the composition before painting the final picture. This is the third of the large landscapes set around the River Stour that Constable exhibited at the Royal Academy between 1819 and 1825.
