The Issachar prophets and prophetic intercessors will carry the burden of the Lord in their hearts to pray and prophesy until everything that God has destined His people to do will happen. We can also see in Ezra 6:14 that the Jewish leadership team continued their work and was greatly encouraged through the prophesying/preaching of the prophets.

When I was at Church recently at the Calvary Chapel I attend in South Jersey, my Pastor brought up a great example, and I wanted to share it with you. It involves the Sons of Issachar (1 Chronicle 7:1).For those of you who don't know who Issachar was, He was one of the sons of Jacob born to Leah (Genesis 35:23).Something very interesting was said about the sons of Issachar.

Chuck Pierce is doing a study and devotional on "Understanding Issachar." There's much to learn from Chuck, who himself is an "Issachar Prophet" which I've called him before, meaning he understands the times and seasons we are in. As Chuck shares in his article, the Issachar tribe "understood time and could interpret the Word of God in time."

Many others do not understand simple protocols for prophetic ministry because they have not been rightly trained, despite the Ephesians 4:11 mandate for five-fold prophets to equip the saints for the work of the ministry. In my Issachar Institute's School of the Prophets earlier this month, we discussed prophetic protocols and guidelines.
