The Locust and the Bee illustrates this shift. Mulgan is aware of the contingencies of history, pointing to a range of realistically possible futures, “from a future ‘pax Sinica’ overseen by a hegemonic China, to a more fractured global apartheid, or a world where the older powers of Europe and North America revive like phoenixes”.

Humans respond to hierarchy. To the fear of rejection and disapproval. To the guidance of higher perspective and knowledge. This response can be the way they pull themselves from suffering, motivate themselves to accomplish, establish or eliminate habits, learn the knowledge and actions necessary for reaching potential, or keep themselves in moral check. In all the phases of humanity's ...
