Book Corner: Gender Failure, by Rae Spoon and Ivan E. Coyote Posted on July 14, 2015 by dmiller Welcome back to Book Corner, an irregularly scheduled feature where I (and any other Culture Cluster members who want to share what they've been reading) review books from off the beaten path—or at least, from outside the academy—that we might not otherwise hear of.

Book Corner: Gender Failure, by Rae Spoon and Ivan E ...

Gender Failure is comprised of alternating essays/stories by Ivan and Rae, both of whom are talented writers, although I prefer Ivan's more experienced and laid-back prose. I did really enjoy the stories of Rae's journeys through small-town Canada and unexpected kindness and prejudice, and new friends, and meeting a trans kid whose parents bring him to Rae's show in Prince George.
