Real music ain't hear no bell yet! You just have to go searching a little harder for it these days. Instead of finding real music at the top of the charts, you have to go around to the streets to hear it in all its glory. Like this fella right here who could put every producer out of business with the beats he's laying down.

You feel your strength in the experience of pain. It's all in how you carry it. That's what matters. Pain is a feeling. Your feelings are a part of you. Your own reality. If you feel ashamed of them, and hide them, you're letting society destroy your reality. You should stand up for your right to feel your pain." — Jim Morrison
